

13579ROUS01U

Page 25 of 25

Privileged & confidential

ABSTRACT

A software installation manager for use in a data network. The software installation manager exchanges
5 messages with individual nodes of a set of nodes for directing the installation of a software product on the nodes of the set in parallel according to a non-blocking sequence. The non-blocking sequence is characterized in 10 that the installation of a software product on one node of the set does not block the installation of the software product on another node of the set.

F E T H E R S T O N H A U G H C O